

DISTRICT ATTORNEY BELL, who was at Santa Fe last week, says that it is understood in the northern part of the territory that H. B. Fergusson, of Albuquerque, would accept the nomination for delegate to congress from this territory should it be tendered to him. Mr. Fergusson is one of the most popular democrats in New Mexico and is admirably qualified for the office. With such a man at the head of the democratic ticket the success of the territorial democracy in the coming election would be assured beyond the possibility of a doubt. Harvey B. Fergusson, of Bernalillo, for delegate to congress!

THOMAS S. HEFLIN, of this city, has resigned as assistant U. S. district attorney, and it is understood that U. S. Attorney Hemmingway wants G. P. Money appointed to the position, while a large number of the democrats of New Mexico would like to see E. V. Chavez, of Socorro, in the position. Money is a new arrival while Chavez is a native of the territory. Why not have a man who is known in the territory appointed to the place?

SOME of the republican politicians in the territory are saying a great deal against the agricultural college at Las Cruces. These men are the enemies of education, and would rather disparage the work of the agricultural college, thinking that such a course might, in some manner, redound to the benefit of the republican party, than to do any thing to benefit the institution. Such a course will not win. Efficient educational institutions are needed in New Mexico; the people realize the fact and the party that opposes the progress of education, in any manner, will not only lose votes, but will lose the respect of the people.

SOME PRESS OPINIONS.

IT PRINTS ALL THE NEWS.

THE EAGLE has made its appearance from Silver City, with Loomis & Oakes editors and proprietors. The paper is gotten up in an unusual form for a country weekly, being made up of sixteen small pages of three columns to the page. The paper is bright and newsy, having one distinct scoop on the last Sentinel, an account of the jail delivery last Friday.—Western Liberal.

A NEW AND NEWSY PAPER.

Silver City has a new and newsy democratic paper, THE EAGLE, by Loomis & Oakes.—Las Vegas Optic.

ALWAYS ROOM AT THE TOP.

Volume 1, number 1, of THE EAGLE, a new democratic paper, published by Loomis & Oakes, of Silver City, has been received. It is a neat 16-page publication, gotten up in the style of a 3-column magazine, and shows that the parties at its head are practical newspaper men. While it seems to us the field in Silver City is now crowded, still there is always room at the top. We hope the new venture will be a success.—Industrial Advertiser (Socorro).

A CREDIT TO THE TOWN.

We are in receipt of THE EAGLE, a new democratic paper just started at Silver City by Loomis & Oakes. The paper is a credit to the town and its owners, and The Advocate places it on its exchange list with pleasure.—Sierra County Advocate.

"THE EAGLE" IS DEMOCRATIC.

THE EAGLE, published at Silver City, is on our table. It is democratic, which we much regret, for its makeup and general appearance indicate more intelligence than can generally be credited to the sheets of that party.—Cerrillos Rustler.

BRIGHT AND NEWSY.

THE EAGLE is the name of a bright and newsy democratic weekly just started at Silver City, with Loomis & Oakes as editors and proprietors. It is ably edited and its mechanical get up is of a superior order.—Socorro Chieftain.

NEATLY PRINTED AND ABLY EDITED.

THE EAGLE is the name of a neatly printed and ably edited paper just established at Silver City by Loomis & Oakes.—Albuquerque Citizen.

NEAT AND NEWSY.

THE EAGLE is the name of a neat and newsy new democratic paper at Silver City. A. J. Loomis is the editor.—Eddy Argus.

A VALUABLE ACQUISITION.

The initial number of THE EAGLE, published by Loomis & Oakes at Silver City, has reached us. It announces itself as democratic in politics, and if it maintains the standard of excellence of the first number, it will be a valuable acquisition to the territorial press.—Springer Stockman.

A TYPOGRAPHICAL BEAUTY.

THE EAGLE is the title of a new democratic weekly publication issued at Silver City by Messrs. Loomis and Oakes, the latter a practical printer and the former one of the cleverest writers. It is clean, newsy and altogether a typographical beauty.—New Mexican.

THE LATEST ADDITION.

THE EAGLE is the latest addition to Silver City journalistic circles. It appears to be independent democratic in politics and its first number is bright and newsy.—Southwest Sentinel.

THE SHECKELS ARE COMING.

It was with extreme pleasure that we received as an exchange a copy of THE EAGLE, published in Silver City by Messrs. Loomis and Oakes. Mr. Oakes is well known to the proprietors of the Stock Grower, and to say that we wish him success is but a mild expression of our hopes that he will soon lay aside enough sheckels to live comfortable and enjoy life as he so deserves.—Las Vegas Stock Grower.
